Here I am, in the middle of the night
Oh where are you my darlin'?
A true love, the biggest love
But something hurts, I'm sure about it.
Anyway, here I am, call me I need you
Here I am, don't say I've lost you
Here I am, all alone.
I found your eyes, the truest eyes
I'd love to own

Yes I'm gone, I feel I'm goin'
Oh no, my love, it's just a bad dream.
All I have, is a broken heart
But I want to share my life beside you.
Anyway, here I am, call me I need you
Here I am, don't say I've lost you
Here I am, all alone.
I found your eyes, the truest eyes
I'd love to own.
