Time rushes on and it's fair
When someone you used to love is no longer there
But I think it's time you know
See, love is a society, any fool cannot belong
'Cause the minute you hurt love
Then it's over and one, and...
Love don't love you anymore
Should have never done wrong
Ain't it hard to believe
Love's not coming home
Love is a ride, up and down
You did what you did to love
And I bet you know now
'Cause there's no one else around
And now you're running back to me
To forgive you your mistake
Kinda makes me sad to say, but
It's a little too late, 'cause
Love don't love you anymore
Should have never done wrong
Ain't it hard to believe
Love's not coming home
Love is a ride, up and down
You did what you did to love
And I bet you know now
'Cause there's no one else around
And now you're running back to me
To forgive you your mistake
Kinda makes me sad to say, but
It's a little too late, 'cause
Seems to be that you're the one
(The one who did bad things to love)
It's sad to see, so sad to tell
('Cause now we'll never hear the bells)
Love don't love you
Love don't want you
Love don't love you anymore
