In a room with no doors I will loose myself to you

In a room with blackened walls I'm coming trough In a room in my house you'll be seeing it trough my eyes

It's a perpetual sin, let the ritual begin tonight It's alright, can't you see

It's ok, she is with me
Like the sand of our time
Clovenhoof
Are you the one they say you are, are you holy to the bone
Have you got faith enough to throw the first stone

Are you my flame when only darkness prevails

Are you my white wale, the hammer for my nails tonight
