I shout and call for rejoicing

I hear the sound of angel wings

Escape us as we close the ring
And into the fire we will fall
Our desire, our flame, our call

So be it, once for all

And you are the dream and I am the lie
I am the Devil and you are my disguise
I'm all the pain you always tried to keep inside
Love in chains

We break free
There is a time
For you and me

Not today
Not tomorrow
But one day our sorrow
Shall go away
All our being is spellbound
A black magic hellhound

Let us have another round for our love
Many hours we shall wait
But it will never be too late
In life or death we'll intergrate one day
Trough rain and stormy weather
Shall always be together
Together here forever

Forever...
