"Where The Serpents Ever Dwell"

Enthroned thy sacred soul to enter the lands of mist Invoke the path of gathered stars at night Binding conjurations in the circle on the top of the hill Face the crown of history that is older than time Break the seal and vanquish your vague imagination Open the gates and the entire life is found behind The memory of your name will be carved in the minds of the shadows In the mind of evil it will be Eternal life is obtained for you
where the serpents ever dwell Seven Ancient Ones are they Raise the lords of all that is evil Awake, by rites the beyond of man
The living part of death approaches Leave your body tonight
Reach the evil tonight
The final ritual tonight
The end of this world tonight Dignity is received from the rulers of the depth Hailfully praises thee
The obscure freedom is yours
The memory of your work will remain through dimensions of time In the eternal wind it will blow
Eternal life is obtained for you
where the serpents ever dwell
