Shake you out of your senses
Move you down into the ground
You gotta wake up
You gotta get out
Before it all comes down

You're about to figure out
Exactly why you're here
You gotta wake up
You gotta get out
You've got nothing to fear

From the world
From the world
Where everything is twisted
Folded and unfurled
From the world
From the world
Where strange things happen
Every day around
This place

You've got to start moving out
Exploring new frontiers
You gotta get up
You gotta get out
And see the wild and weird

Every day's a brand new dawn
Of a brand new day so carry on
You gotta get up
You gotta get out
And see what's going on

From the world
From the world
Where everything is twisted
Folded and unfurled
From the world
From the world
Where strange things happen

Every day around
This place

And nowhere else
Will you recognize
Nothing recognizable
And nothing despised
And everything is hated
And everything is fated
In this unfated world
Of today

Got nothing to fear
Got nothing to fear
So you gotta get up
You gotta get out
Got nothing to fear
Got nothing to fear
Got nothing to rear

From the world
From the world
Where everything is twisted
Folded and unfurled
From the world
From the world
Where strange things happen
Every day around
This place

From the world
From the world
Where everything is twisted
Folded and unfurled
From the world
From the world
Where strange things happen
Every day around
This place

Every day around thi
