[Verse One] It's getting hot in here, cause that's the way I spit it I'm not saying take off your clothes, just change your fake image This industry isn't ready so we're takin' it slow Strategize and stabilize the flow and change the status quo Yo, I'm smakin', heads Like jumpin' off a bridge Into shallow waters filled with alligators and piranhas I get, deep with beats and rhymes Don't sleep on this We're like the bed of sprites shinin' in the dark like city lights Give me the microphone Blazin' on any occasion So hot, DJs touch it and their fingers look like raisins We raisin' the bar Me and my crew represent correct Heaven sent dialect to resurrect the dead culture It's still breathin' I'll rock over the heartbeat Livin' out every word I say before I start to speak Illuminate your area Section when we enter it Not just to entertain But also for your souls benefit Chorus: [x2] We illuminate in every city and state Lightheaded and LifeSavas Next door neighbors We bring it from a northwest state of mind And every time we rhyme, shine, illuminate "Yeah!" [Verse Two] Now, Aurora Borealis style Dance around and paint the clouds Golden light illumination, expose you to soulful sounds Straight from the city surrounded by mountains In or out of town Lightheaded sure to put it down So whenever you're around, be sure To come bare witness, sit, listen for a minute it's intense With each adrenaline tripling effects Of instant induce in the sentence of interest When one, we are able to (two) See projections of three four The pleasure Add up to five When combined With the life preserving persons of our kind Six and seven totally divine when moon and reverend shine [Verse Three: Omega Whatts] Eight, Ninth Wonder construct my melodic backdrop Your throat iced while I toss rocks that shatter your glass image I light up spots and search for the authentic Life preservative, like sugar in blood streams for diabetics This world state is chaotic In need of luminescence So Omega Whatts, ever ready to bring a divine presence Sustained By the crys of the innocent who are born Death through words, killin' the unborn Every accord of our future elect Citizens, who will respect our creators creations Teachin', shedding light on all aspects Of mankind My vision risin As the phoenix airborne above the same old songs My band plays on [Chorus]
