You tried to make amends,
And I destroyed your friends.
If only we could speak again...

Oh no, we've come back to the start with our urgency to love.
Dipping toes, knowing well it'll scar.
Still we plunge right into love.

You tried to make amends,
And I destroyed your friends.
If only we could speak again,
I'd show the world that all of war can be
Traced back to a miscommunication and fear.
I promise you I'll always try to see
Your side before the full manifestation of fear.
It's over. Just go back to your lake,
Lay out in the sun, and be. Oh!
You're closer. There's a life you can take.
You don't have to run. Just be.

You tried to make amends,
And I destroyed your friends.
If only we could speak again,
I'd show the world that all of war can be
Traced back to a miscommunication and fear.
I promise you I'll always try to see
Your side before the full manifestation of fear.

Oh no, we've come back to the start with our urgency to
love.
Oh no, we've come back to the start with our urgency to love.
