You never would believe me
When I told you that I loved you
That I loved you even more
More than you love me
And you said it was complicated
And you always made me prove it
Take a look back now
Tell me that I wasn't right
And I love you more now than I did before
And you still don't know how
To love me anymore
All the days that we spent together
Driving in the snow whether
Holding hands in the van
I knew that you love me
Swimming in the Caribbean
Watching movies when we should have been sleeping
Take a look back now
Tell me that I wasn't right
And I love you more now than I did before
And you still don't know how
To love me anymore
And I miss you
I wanna kiss you
When you face me one day
I'll surprise you, I'll amaze you
Proof to you that I'm your man
And I love you more now than I did before
And you still don't know how
To love me anymore
Even though I can't escape it
I can try, but I can't deny it
All I do is think of you
And the things you said to me
In the cabbing we were dancing
A little more my heart romancing
Could it be that if you were with me unassumingly
I love you more now than I did before
And you still don't know how
To love me anymore
And I love you more now than I did before

And you still don't know how
To love me anymore
And I love you more now than I did before
And you still don't know how
To love me anymore
