My brain's on fire, my brain's on drugs
Call up my guard to fill my cup
I feel so lost, I'm so alone
Here in my room, come fill me up

"The door is locked, you can't get out"
Said the voice of malice
Here I am, trapped inside
Under glass, the fun palace

Creepy crawlers, sidewalk maulers
Have you met our little Alice?
Cobweb corners, prepaid mourners
Won't you come back to the palace?

When I look through the glass
I see them dancing in the dark
There's one now, oh can't you see the eyes of fire?
Watch out for sparks

What in hell is it they want
And can they get behind my wall?
Can you hear, hear it creep?
Coming closer, hear it call

Creepy crawlers, sidewalk maulers
Have you met our little Alice?
Cobweb corners, prepaid mourners
Welcome back to the palace

Creepy crawlers, sidewalk maulers
Have you met our little Alice?
Cobweb corners, prepaid mourners
Welcome back to the palace

Welcome back to the palace
Welcome back to the palace
Welcome back [Incomprehensible]
Welcome back to the palace

Well, I'm out the door
And I'm heading for the wall

Deep into the night
Please God, don't let me fall

I hear the bark of the dogs
I gotta make my choices
Search lights getting brighter
Please don't let them take my voices away

The pictures of, deep in my mind
The memories that can kill
I lick the wounds, they can't be cleansed
Because they won't, won't hold still

And I scream in agony
I feel the flesh tearing off me
Oh help me please, it's hide and seek
The secret found in therapy

Creepy crawlers, sidewalk maulers
Have you met our little Alice?
Cobweb corners, prepaid mourners
You're now back in the palace

Creepy crawlers, sidewalk maulers
Have you met our little Alice?
Cobweb corners, prepaid mourners
You're now back in the palace
