Drive, I'm gonna do what I want
And I don't care about the rest
And if I fall I will get up
I will deliver my best

This will be a lonely road
But it's what I choose
The pain and the sacrifice
I got nothing to lose

I'm alright, I'm okay
I'll survive another day
I'm alright, go away
Can't you hear the words I say?

I'm alright, I'm okay
I'll survive another day
I'm alright, go away
Can't you hear the words I say?

Nothing but madness, no one to talk to Feeling like you're all alone
Fearing the failure, preparing to wait
Dealing with it all on your own

Tell me I can't but I'm not listening
It doesn't matter what you say
Try if you want to change my destiny
But I'll get there someday

I'm alright, I'm okay
I'll survive another day
I'm alright, go away
Can't you hear the words I say?

I'm alright, I'm okay
I'll survive another day
I'm alright, go away
Can't you hear the words I say?

Sometimes I think I'm going under
Don't know if I can take no more

But then I turn them into hunger
I'll turn this battle into war

Sometimes I think I'm going under
Don't know if I can take no more
But then I turn them into hunger
I'll turn this battle into war

Faster, I'm gaining momentum
I'm getting closer to my goal
Nothing can stop me or get in my way
I'm in complete control

Failure, I'm under adoption
Past the point of no return
Nothing gets easy and nothing's free
Success you learn

I'm alright, I'm okay
I'll survive another day
I'm alright, go away
Can't you hear the words I say?

I'm alright, I'm okay
I'll survive another day
I'm alright, go away
Can't you hear the words I say?
