Welcome to my panic and I'm sure you know the rule
Where everything comes crashing down and madness is the rule
Your mind is set to overload with doomsday information
I see you've come here just in time to join the celebration

Don't fight it, invite it voices in my head
Just try it, entice it, telling me I'm dead
Don't fight it, invite it, playing with my brain
Just try it, entice it, driving me insane

Starting with that warm rush, slicing down your spine
They tell me that it's not for real, it happens all the time
But something different's happening and I think this is the one
I gotta get me out of here, I gotta turn and run

Don't fight it, invite it, voices in my head
Just try it, entice it, telling me I'm dead
Don't fight it, invite it, playing with my brain
Just try it, entice it, driving me insane

Don't fight it, invite it, voices in my head
(Head)
Just try it, entice it, telling me I'm dead
Don't fight it, invite it, playing with my brain
(Brain)
Just try it, entice it, driving me insane

Facing the shock and the terror alone
A time bomb just waiting to blow
You cannot escape and there's nowhere to hide
You're fleeing with no place to go

Feeling like nothing can save me
A feeling I know all too well
Imprisoned by paranoid madness
Condemned to a life spent in hell

Everything is spinning round, this is torture of the soul

My heart is racing, can't stop shaking, gotta get control (Control)
Terrified, don't wanna die, hysteria sets in
But when you learn just to invite it, panic never wins

Don't fight it, invite it, voices in my head
(Head)
Just try it, entice it, telling me I'm dead
Don't fight it, invite it, playing with my brain
(Brain)
Just try it, entice it, driving me insane

Don't fight it, invite it, voices in my head
(Head)
Just try it, entice it, telling me I'm dead
Don't fight it, invite it, playing with my brain
(Brain)
Just try it, entice it, driving me insane
