Hey you, I hear you got nothing to lose Well, I got a deal to soothe your soul, an offer you can't refuse
Just step into my world, I guarantee you'll never be the same Let me introduce myself, I'm sure you've heard the name

They call me the pastor of disaster
They call me the pastor of disaster

Sucker, I've got you now, it's time to make your descent I've got one hell of a schedule and there'll be no time to repent
What, you dare defy me, when I could slice you up with ease
I am temptation, so get down on your fucking knees

Never cut a deal with the pastor

I am the 6-star general and these are my commands Bow to me and take my plague, spread it across the lands

Never cut a deal with the pastor

Can anybody help me, you sold your soul
Can anybody help me, never cut a deal with disaster

Never cut a deal with the pastor

Can anybody help me, you sold your soul
Can anybody help me, never cut a deal with the pastor
Can anybody help me, you sold your soul
Can anybody help me, never cut a deal with disaster

They call me the pastor of disaster
