Closets of my mind destroyed, as I enter outward from a void

Corpses white have strapped me down, I rise above then fall

Tactual hallucination, cockroaches infest the wall

Psychic pain on ice, I hurt
Devoid strength my life, inert
Anger fills they've shocked me back White corpses turn to black
I run on psychic gasoline, my fuel shall burn you all

Chorus:

Word Salad, no ballad

Word Salad, no ballad

Diabolic plot, a toy, my brain the corpses to destroy Prick my arm, injection fed, it's poison, I'm no fool
Tetanus shot, be sure it's not, I wish I were at school Closets of my mind destroyed, but I enter inward, black void

Hatred turns to apathy, led down this dark abyss, Good night, farewell you pig from hell, this world I shall not miss

Chorus:

Word Salad, no ballad

Word Salad

Woken up from death, nausea
Catatonic stupor, anoxia
Remaining still I hold onto a sense of permanence
Negativistic fear of pain, algophobic life sentence
Moral, physical decay, hatred withered away
Scourge of God he makes me pay, I shall not live or die
Vegetative judgment passed, my only thought to cry
