the street dodging the bullets because your get blast by another peep i was the youngest to achieve plautium stats mobile phone still blimping because it managment providing me with interviews and performances on live tv and new bendz updated with a system that remns navagating the streets up because the enterain bak rolling the the sixes to declare if i should be dissapeared to no mans land but that be a pitty just a dissapointment to my fans autograph and pictures because if i re-act front page on the news $upreme luses out so get my number on my jail suite ready but when i'm out are be state playing the ball to young to sip alchol at the bar but my managment can bag me up some chciks my rep is still high been pinned up in the big house for far too long could rememebr honeys in gucci high heels and pantloss cloths but it all about the money not because i grown i be poping champaigh another award at the grammy again so if you hit my set i get jumping but are brawl it out for the biggest and da baddest so step a side as i project my text the wrath i'm sending is fully loaded i can be creul baby nasty flashy when i get drunk i been round more times then pamela lee devoted to the lifestyle i be pimping parties all night shocking the sound waves on the radio stations snd all through the streets there be saying is.

VERSE 2

I'm the godfather of rap I stutter most peeps with the gadgets i present a mobile a vibrating pager and ice around my wrist. Getting calls from the television asking me to be a special guest in a sitcom model for calvin and be the next one up for big rolls in the movies. With dis money i can wrap up a dvd armed up next to a widescreen tv and followed by a dreamcast consule. The only thing i date now in this game is the models on playboy mags you better ring up early for $upreme tickets because they might be sold out. I'm doing ads for pepsi getting free cloths nike and energy fans running up saying when my next record out in the store. you can only see me suited up with a candy painted flamed range temped window and still i have to pay for my grocerys and the shops. High educatued man asking me for my opion on investing in my area code. Back at the officers full of papper stacks on the walls platiun stats and on my desk tropheys but i'm still coming out of high school. They think im just a trade trying to get my record company some fame. You can't look at any newspaper with out my name reading the headline i'm the limelight my profile is being the household flame a comandian joker a song writer with all this shit feel free to ask me any questions.

VERSE 3

I've got logic and i'm never been handcuffed now i grown the richer i own the star bucks but if you diss me behind my back i might have to key up your truck. Sometimes i got depressed and stressed over the contracts and deals i have to complete to stay on top of my game so I compare high on the chain. You got me hooked up on computer games advert stunts premiers to the movies shooting my next video in pool but you rather see me in the slammer rotten 50ft under. I'm a lucky charm but you haters better be alarmed bodyguards locked around 24/7 high quailty security on my house sooner or later there be a restarunt named after me. Through this stage you can complain to them locial threats and moans what you get from your girl when you come strolling in the door. Got fans searching and downloaing my rhymes from napster go on feds check my reocords there clean. Soon there be a feastival recognize to $upreme but i'm still getting apporch to do colaboration or soundtracks untill the die i'm i die i'm gonna serve the mic sip on the tonic and sweep up the world like the allstars sonics.
