I'm not that kind of man,
I can't explain why I can't get better at being restless.
She pulls me back into the center of my life.

This love for you won't be enough.
Look at my body into yours when the time comes.
I've got you all worked up over nothing, you don't know.

Leave now, that the bottle's empty,
Oh, no, cover your ears from the breaking glass.
You know, it ain't so easy.

Bury in the awful taste you left
When you went off finding yourself.
Where does that leave me? My friend, in love, again.
It's me and Geniene.
Bury in the awful taste you left
When you went off finding yourself.
Where does that leave me? My friend, in love, again.
It's me and Geniene.
