You Hurt me before
But I won't let that happen anymore
The way you made me feel
The Pain was so unreal
That thing that I can't ignore
Left me crying as you shut that door.

And you said those words so unforgiving
And that mistake I wont be reliving

Cause theres everything and anything and all these things and all these words
That Get stuck in my head
And even thow it's just for fun I don't wanna be the one
Not another tear sha'll I shed
And I wish those words were left UnSaid

You don't even care
So don't apologize
Don't even dare
You broke my heart is two
I thought our love was true
These feelings of despair
Like no other can compare

And you said those words so unforgiving
And that mistake I won't be reliving

Cause theres everything and anything and all these things and all these words
That get stuck in my head
And even thow it's just for fun
I don't wanna be the one
Not another tear will I shed
And I wish those words were left UnSaid

And not this time
And not this place
I don't wanna see your face again...again
And your not worth fighting for
I just want to get this over
Don't you come around here anymore

And you said those words so unforgiving
And that mistake I won't be reliving

Cause theres everything and anything and all these things and all these words
That get stuck in my head
And even thow it's just for fun
I don't want to be the one
Not another tear will I shed
Cause I wish those words were left UnSaid
Yeah
I wish those words were left UnSaid
