(Verse)

Can you tell, can you tell me, baby, where did we go wrong?

Can you tell, can you tell me, baby, where did we go wrong?

Baby, when I looked into your eyes, I knew you couldn't say it.

Baby, I hold on this love we made and got someone who can throw it away.

(Pre-Chorus)

You make this whole thing better,

You don't wanna be better.

Need to find out where we lost our love.

(Chorus)

How should I feel when I know we ain't in love?

How should I feel when I just wanna give up?

I have never felt this way, I have never been this way,

I ain't never let my guard down, until I found you,

Until I found you, until I found you, until I found you!

(Verse)

Uh, babe, I know that I'm in love with you,

But I can't keep being misused by you.

My mind keeps telling me to let it go, baby,

What do I do?

(Pre-Chorus)

You make this whole thing better,

You don't wanna be better.

Need to find out where we lost our love.

(Chorus)

How should I feel when I know we ain't in love?

How should I feel when I just wanna give up?

I have never felt this way, I have never been this way,

I ain't never let my guard down, until I found you,

Until I found you, until I found you, until I found you!

(Bridge)

I thought that you needed me, how could you not,
baby?
All that you want in me, now you ain't around, baby
I don't wanna do this if you don't wanna love me
Why is it so hard to let you, let you go?

(Chorus)

How should I feel when I know we ain't in love?
How should I feel when I just wanna give up?
I have never felt this way, I have never been this way,
I ain't never let my guard down, until I found you,
Until I found you, until I found you, until I found you!
