Loving You

I wasn't looking when I fell in you
A welcome surprise in your eyes - love that's true You're stealing the world right out from under me - arrows from your mind are making my heart bleed Loving you

I'll do my best to lighten your load - make you feel better than you've ever known Sing you a love song nobody knows
You think you've tried love? I'll give you more

I had it all wrong, I thought that I was strong enough
I thought that I knew just what I'd do with love Then you shattered it all, you made me fall in love again
Since you've been around, I can't come down
I can't come down from Loving you

I'll do my best to lighten your load - make you feel better than you've ever known
Sing you a love song nobody knows
You think you've tried love? I'll give you more

You think you've tried love? My Love Yeah

The look in your eyes drives me crazy my love - I can't hardly control myself
The scent of your skin and the love that I'm in got me running in circles all over again Yeaaaahhhh ohhhh

I'll do my best to lighten your load - make you feel better than you've ever known
Sing you a love song nobody knows
You think you've tried love? I'll give you more

I'll do my best to lighten your load - make you feel

better than you've ever known Sing you a love song that nobody knows
You think you've tried love? My Loveâ€¦I'll give you
