Everyday I take a step closer closer to the girl I wanna be too many things I have to understand so many questions still need the answers

I wonder if I'll ever find them all
But I know I just got to give it time, whoaa

Every days changing, I'm rearranging
I'm not the girl I used to be
A new tomorrow
I've got to let go of all the things I used to know

The world's spinning round and round
I can't find the end or beginning
I get up to keep from falling downnn

I call up to make a sound
I look up, does anybody hear me
I get up to keep from falling down, down

It's now or never, come on, move on Can't wait to finally move along
To a place I know where I've never gone, whoaa

Every days changing, I'm rearranging
I'm not the girl I used to be
A new tomorrow
I've got to let go of all the things I used to know

The world's spinning round and round
I can't find the end or beginning
I get up to keep from falling downnn

I call up to make a sound
I look up, does anybody hear me
I get up to keep from falling down, down

Forever, forever cause no one has the answer
I'm screaming, I'm drowning
I cannot find a way
I'm not going down!

Every days changing, I'm rearranging
I'm not the girl I used to be
A new tomorrow
I've got to let go of all the things I used to know

The world's spinning round and round
I can't find the end or beginning
I get up to keep from falling downnn

I call up to make a sound
I look up, does anybody hear me
I get up to keep from falling down, down

I get up to keep from falling
I'm getting up to keep from falling
I get up to keep from falling down
