In a moment or two, when we're all but invane,
I will bring you my pain and you will drive me insane.
In a moment or two, when your eyelids are red
and the things that you said, they are all in my head.

In a moment or two, all the things that you are,
didn't take you that far, your arm is now full of scars.
In a moment or two you will surely undo
the feelings that were you..

When the moment is here and the times are severe ,
do not shed any tears, 'cause tears are your fear.
In a moment or two, you will surely undo
the feelings that were you..

Have you ever seen the sky
burn like fire in your eyes?
You thought you were gonna die
but I know you'll be alright..

Now the moment is past,
you are one of the last,
and you thought life was vast,
even though it went fast.
Crossing bridges of faith,
but you still were too late..
I am not the one you really hate..

Do you ever long to see
long-time hidden memories?
Do you ever long?

Have you ever seen the sky
burn like fire in your eyes?
You thought you were gonna die
but I know you'll be alright..
