With your eyes made up and your dress see through
With your heart so big, it don't know what to do
You're my favorite thing, my sweet cavalier
You have saved my life, I got to leave you here

Oh Virginia, no one can warn you
Oh Virginia, I have tried to
When the winter comes, how the cold moves through
Oh Virginia, no one can warn you

I cannot explain how you should begin
I can't give you word, it won't all cave in
There's no good way home, there's no place to rest
There's no room down here for a pretty mess

Oh Virginia, no one can warn you
Oh Virginia, I have tried to
When the winter comes, how the cold moves through
Oh Virginia, no one can warn you

You don't know it yet with your brand new kiss
You don't want to stay here and live like this
The worst I could do, oh, what would I be
If I kept for mine something better than me

Oh Virginia, no one can warn you
Oh Virginia, I have tried to
When the winter comes, how the cold moves through
Oh Virginia, no one can warn you
Oh Virginia, no one can warn you
