You know I once was a gambler boy but I bet my money
wrong
You know I once was a gambler but I bet my money
wrong
Now I ain't got no money and all I got is gone

When you lose that doggone money, sittin' around with your head hung down
When you lose that doggone money, sittin' around with
your head hung down
You wake up in the morning with your face all full of frown

You know I'm through with gamblin', some jackstrapper can have my room Boys I'm through with gamblin', some other hustler can have my room
Well my drinking may kill me but gamblin' won't be my doom

Well I gambled so long till I thought that I would never change
Boys I gambled so long till I thought I would never
change
Well I ain't goin' gamble no more, I swear I'm gonna save my change
