"Tonight"

I said something really cold
I know it was a stupid thing to say
All my life I tried to find you
Don't know why I'm pushing you away

I can only ask forgiveness if your heart can give It's in your hands, please let me try

Tonight, tonight
I'll make you feel the fire tonight
Tonight, I'll do it right
I'll make you feel the fire tonight

(Ooh, ooh) All I care about is you
I finally come to realise that now
And I can be the man that you deserve
But only if you show me how

Tonight, tonight
I'll make you feel the fire tonight

I'll make you feel the fire
I'll make you feel the fire
I'll make you feel the fire tonight

Tonight, tonight
I'll make you feel the fire tonight
Tonight, I'll do it right
I'll make you feel the fire
I'll make you feel the fire tonight
