"Keeper Of The Plaguelands"

Visit "Keeper Of The Plaguelands" on MotoLyrics.com

I am the ruler of these plaguelands
My reign drives fear into the heart of any man
None will appose me
These corpses are mine.
Their blood forever stains the land for the ravens to feast
Their corpses are mine, none shall leave None shall leave.
I am the ruler of these plaguelands
My reign drives fear into the heart of any man.
The ghastly sight of blood and entrails leaves my mark across the land
Warning signs for those who appose to show them who's the man
Mother Nature cowers before me, clutching at her creations
Bowing down and realizing I am the new god in town
She can now see, I rule this land
