Pushing myself through the crowd again
Making my way back home
Feeling afraid to look down again
Life could be more than I know

And it feels just like the first time
Every time that you're near me
Oh, it feels just like the first time
Every time I hear you say
No way
No way
Am I ever gonna let you leave
No way
No way
Am I ever gonna set you free

Pushing myself for more again
Making my way to the goal
Finding my way to the floor again
If there's noplacel left to go

Oh, it feels just like the first time
Every time that you're with me
Yeah, it feels just like the first time
Every time I hear you say
No way
No way
Am I ever gonna let you leave
No way
No way
Am I ever gonna set you free

Fighting my mind for the truth again
Looking for reasons to go
Searching myself for my youth again
Weakness is starting to show

But it feels just like the first time
Every time that you're near me
Oh, it feels just like the first time
Every time I hear you say

No way
No way
Am I ever gonna let you leave
No way
No way
Am I ever gonna set you free

No way
No way
I'll never, ever let you leave
No way
No way
You're always gonna be with me

No way...
