Tonight, it's all black and white
The sky is so quiet
But inside a battles raging wild
Why do I fight
Why do I fight
Heaven's love
When all I need is more of you in me

Now, I need you now
More than the air I'm breathing
Now, yes I'm crying out from the depths of my inmost
being
Now, come have your way with me
Yes, I need you now

The dawn chases the dark out of my heart
As tears of gladness roll
They wash over me like the waves of the sea
Shouting out their Hallelujahs
And I am free with more of you in me

Now, I need you now
More than the air I'm breathing
Now, yes I'm crying out from the depths of my inmost
being
Now, come have your way with me
Stay close and never leave
Until you're the heart that beats
Inside of me

I need you now, I need you now
I'm crying out more than the air I breathe
Yes I need you now, yes I'm crying out
And all I need
Is more of you in me now
I need you now
Yes I need you now
