"Confines Of Love"

I'm an honest woman, a representation of the state of mutual confusion =
within the confines of love, heavy lidded darling embedding in my arms, = I'll take a kiss to settle payment like a song for the gods. Does your = undying devotion only last 'til I'm out the door? Can I keep my fingers =
away from a sore? Does your undying devotion only last 'til I'm out the = door? I can't keep my fingers away from a sore. Happy to include you in = my escapes, we're the first to intrude and the last ones to leave, never = assume that we came with someone that you know, we'll go through every = drawer, and throw the contents to the wind. Am I risking complicity? =
Right here, right where I want to be? Is this absurdity?
To trust you so = implicitly, losing my complacency, you would be the end of me, oh well =
well you're well worth it, I've never got the nerve to do it, happy to =
include you.
