Georgia's mother wanted a doctor or a barrister But all she wanted was to be a painter move to the great desert
So she said goodbye to her family moved to the hot southwest
She could hear them begging her lamely answered them like this

I won't hurt myself and I ain't hurting you I can do what the hell I want to do

Oscar had a razor sharp wit he had a way with his words
He never took anybody's shit he'd prove them to be absurd Gertrude left a good home in Oakland and she never looked back Hooked up with a chick called B. Toklas head out to the left bank
