I did not get out of the treaches escape this linger and damage ill take to my grave That nerve gas poison and agent oarnge the wages of high risk are part of my story what kind of madness took ahold of me to shoot another's blood into my willing veins no i could never do that voluntarily i heard a demon tell me to and i obeyed but i dont take the orders from the war room anymore this
one recruiters surrenders I dont take orders from the war
room anymore
now i am my own defender
i keep recieving a distorted command and if i hadnt given up id surely follow back into the tangle of this struggle for man a suicidal mission and a chance for all to end but i dont take the orders from the war room anymore this
one
room anymore
i may have turned yellow but did not betray my old friend's still batlling out in the fray am i ill ilivered now im a beginner im damned all to hell and i am delivered sometimes im tempted to forget myself and jump back into the skirmish as a nurse and have a _____ old time and feel solemnly again id rather that than live it in sanctuary
i dont take the orders from the war room anymore this
one
room anymore
one

room anymore
now i am my own defender i dont take orders
