Catches Your Love

No, love
I never promised you all of my life
I only ever wanted you tonight
Don't get me with that smile

No, love
You're never gonna take me away
I only wanted you for a day
There's nothing you can say

I said
That catches your love

So call
I never said I'd get to the stars
The way i feel now there too far
Lets stay here for a while

I'm here
And nothing's gonna move me away
Just don't give up my hope for a day
There's nothing you can say

I said
That catches your love

I try to catch your love
But it slips through my fingers
Like water running free
It just slips from my hands
It's obvious to me
That my feeling's kinda serious
'Cause nothing you can offer
Can be held in my grasp.
