how will we survive, it's hard to say and how many changes can my heart take and how will i know if this was meant to be for me these butterflies won't leave me alone after of living this life on my own cry for you, i love you still baby i'm sorry, sorry, sorry

i just can't help feeling like you must not love me no more can't see nothing in your eyes
is anything left inside your heart for me (must not) must not love me no more good relationships are give and take when the new feeling is gone it gets hard to stay admit i was wrong let me make it up to you don't just walk away

is anything left inside your heart for me (must not) must not love me no more i thought you promise me that you would always be, be right here beside me girl ain't that what you said i thought you told me it's forever you and me what's happening i'm hoping you can feel my plead

is anything left inside your heart for me (must not) must not love me no more

is anything left inside your heart for me (must not) must not love me no mor
