Here I am believin' words again
Here I am tryin' to find your love again
Here I am down on my knees again
Prayin' for a love that we used to know

Both of us know how hard it is
To love and let it go
Both of us know how hard it is
To go on living that way

When so few understand what it means
To fall in love
And so few'll know how hard it is
To live without it

Lord, I must have been blind
Lord, I must have been blind
Lord, I must have been blind

To hold something real and not believe it
To live in her life and never trustin'
To give all you know and never feel it
To hold back each day, until it dies away

Both of us know how hard it is
To love and let it go
And both of us know how hard it is
To go on living that way

When so few understand what it means
To fall in love
So few know how hard it is
To live without it

Lord, I must have been blind
Lord, I must have been blind
Lord, I must have been blind
Yes, I must have been blind
