Don't need a second sight
To help me get it right
Fireglow you glow for me
Don't need a masterplan
To help me understand
Fireglow you glow for me
The keeper of my destiny
Don't need a mastermind
To help me lead the blind
Fireglow you turn me on
Instead of faking it
I'm really making it
Fireglow what have you done
Your love for me must weight a ton
You are the victory
Of all my misery
Fireglow it's you and I alone
