Still got my pride
But it's all over inside
No one's to blame
I'm just happily lost on memory lane
Seeking shelter from the rain
Well on our way
I heard you say
But words go astray
When I'm happily lost on memory lane
Pick me up when the truth comes clean
Time is a space between us
They can call Mars and Venus
Time is still a space between us
A mystery to all who've seen us
Joined at the heart
But light years apart
I sadly claim
To be happily lost on memory lane
Till a supernova ends the game
Time is a space between us
They can call Mars and Venus
Time is still a space between us
A mystery to all who've seen us
