Black dog in the warm sunshine
Looks like she's lost her mind
Why don't we call her back
She can't go on like that

We're standin' in the doorway now
Wondering how black dog got out
If she could only hear me
Black dog might come back again

Black dog will you come around
Black dog won't you lay yourself down

She can run and she can play
Black dog likes to get away
She can bark and she can bite
Black dog keeps you up at night

Neighbors are getting tired
Black dog is in their yard
In your fence a time or two
Before you have to start anew

Black dog will you come around
Black dog won't you lay yourself down

Black dog will run again
Because shes not listening
Sun is settin' on her face
Black dogs wondered far away

I wanna see your face
When they put black dog in place
You say it can't be done
But tomorrow won't be long

Black dog will you come around
Black dog won't you lay yourself down

Black dog will you come around
Black dog when will you lay yourself down
