Could I be the man that you need?
Well, I think so sometimes, when I'm out of my mind

Other men will doubt it
Try to turn around
But I don't have the time
To pay them any mind

So could I be the man that you need?
Well, I think so sometimes, when I'm out of my mind
Could I be the man that you need?
I think so sometimes, when I'm out of my mind

Changeover, I'm not in the mood to lie
Changeover, my heart belongs to you
Moreover, I know that you would never try to keep me
I can handle the traveling, if you can take the unraveling

Then could I be the man that you need?
Well, I think so sometimes, when I'm out of my mind
Oh, could I be the man that you need?
Well, I think so sometimes, when I'm out of my mind

I want to be the man that you need
