"Run Away"

Well we've been walking around in circles now
Long enough for us to dig these holes
And I have yet to finally figure out
What it is she thinks she controls
And we're a thousand miles from anywhere
And anywhere is where I'd rather be Cause now I've finally start paying for
All the things I used to get for free

She says, "Pretty soon we're gonna make it."
And I say, "Anywhere but here."
And I know, the chance is there, you gotta take it
But she sells everything I fear
You try to hide, try to run away

Well you can never seem to find yourself
Anytime you think you want me near
And if we turn our backs and walk away
Maybe things will all just disappear

Well you say you "feel like you're breakin' down"
Well let me say that I feel broken too
Cause I'm just sick tired of thinkin' about
All the things I'd do if I were you

She says, "Pretty soon we're gonna make it."
And I say, "Well there's nothin' up my sleeve."
And I know, the chance is there, you gotta take it
So I stay, just to watch her leave
You try to hide, try to run away
