You know i really loved you baby
But you had to ruin everything
Now i'm not gonna cry i'm jus sayin
We could have been good together

Damn you know i really loved you baby
But you had to go and ruin everything
Now i'm a big girl jus sayin
We could have been good together
Damn

Verse 1:

So tired of waking up to your voice on my answering machine
Sayin the things that two years ago you could never say to me
You must call pretty late you know i'm asleep and your ashamed to talk to me and it seems you should be Because you treated my so badly when i loved you

You know i really loved you baby
But you had to ruin everything
Now i'm not gonna cry i'm jus sayin
We could have been good together

Damn you know i really loved you baby
But you had to go and ruin everything
Now i'm a big girl jus sayin
We could have been good together
Damn

Verse 2:

You say you miss me you love me
I have no trouble
Wats sending you back n why
You realize you made the biggest mistake well babe it's to late cause i
Am happy right now
No aint got a man
Jus happy with my damn self

And i admit i loved you baby
But i aint crazy
And i don't want you back

You know i really loved you baby (ohoooooh)
But you had to ruin everything (you ruined it)
Now i'm not gonna cry i'm jus sayin (we could have)
We could have been good together

Damn you know i really loved you baby (loved you baby)
But you had to go and ruin everything (ruined all)
Now i'm a big girl jus sayin
We could have been good together

It's so very nice to see
That you developed a consciensce over there yes i accept your apology
but no no i don't want you back
I couldn't see you then
Is it cause you weren't ready
Well my world don't revolve around you only meeeeeee-eee

(i loved you baby)
You know i really loved you baby
But you had to ruin everything
Now i'm not gonna cry (i loved you baby) i'm jus sayin we could have been good together (we could have been so good to gether we could)

Damn you know i really loved you baby
But you had to go and ruin everything (why say why say why)
Now i'm a big girl jus sayin
We could have been good together

I loved you then i loved you then
Don't love you now, don't love you now
Not gonna cry cause we could have been It's your loss
You did you did when you look in the mirror just blame
