Nothing in this world
no treasure man could buy could take the place of drawing near to you theres nothing i want more than to spend my days with you dwelling in your secret place of praise and oh how i need i need you jesus i need you

you are the one that satisfies

so place within my heart a fire that burns for you that waters cannot quench nor wash away and let that fire blaze through all eternity where one day i shall see you face to face
