I dream of angels on motorbikes speeding to rescue me everytime I fall apart

I dream of all the places I've never been and all of the concerts I wish I had seen of all the lovers I could have had I never dream of them, no
I don't dream about them

Cos I just want a simple life
I just want a simple life
I just want you in my life

I just want a simple life
I just want a simple life
I just want you in my life

I don't dream of bright lights
I don't dream in pound signs
I don't dream of fast cars
The only thing I dream about is your big green eyes and your brightest smile oh those big green eyes, and that bright bright smile

Cos I just want a simple life
I just want a simple life
I just want you in my life

cos I just want a simple life
I just want a simple life
I just want you in my life

I just want a simple life
I just want a simple life
I just want you in my life
I just want you in my life
I just want you
