If you loved me it wouldn't end this way
We're both walking on as perfect strangers My love should have rescued you but instead you brought me down with you Sweet love I'll never change but I will love you til my dying day
No matter what they say about me
My heart will always forever be yours

I'm giving you my heart to keep Call it a sentimental souvenir I'll never ask for it to be returned Just call it a souvenir
of a love unchanged
of a love unchanged
of a love unchanged
of a love noone could break

I gave you my life but it weren't enough Tired from fighting I'm giving up But in my heart I will carry you Never stop loving you Call it souvenir of a love unchanged by hurt and fear Call it souvenir, a piece of me you can always keep near

of a love unchanged
of a love unchanged
of a love unchanged
of a love noone could break
of a love noone could break
of a love noone can take of a love that never changed of a love untamed
