I just don't understand you
You don't make it easy to love you Why do you have to make it oh so hard when it doesn't need to be this way?

All of these secrets, all of these questions
And no answers only lies
All of these secrets, all of the questions
And no answers only lies
You Don't make it easy to love you
I don't think it could make it any harder
And you don't make it easy to love you
It couldn't be any harder
No it couldn't be any harder

I always feel like I'm the one in the wrong Please tell me what the hell is going on You are always distant you seem so cold
And all I want is somebody who is loving me

All of these secrets, all of these questions
And no answers only lies
All of these secrets, all of these questions
And no answers only lies

you don't make it easy to love you
I don't think it couldn't be any harder
you don't make it easy to love you
it couldn't be any harder
no you couldn't make it any harder
