I hope you don't mind but I thought I'd stop by and say hello since it's been such a long time I missed you all so very much I even missed the kids grow up all I wanna do is wrap my arms around you and say that I love you

I hope you don't mind but I thought I'd come home thought I'd come back to where I belong
back home
back home
back home
back home

It's so strange how the place has changed even the old house don't look the same but when I'm troubled or feeling down this is the place I need to be around with my family around me with the ones I love near me that's where I need to be

I hope you don't mind but I thought I'd come home
thought I'd come back to where I belong
back home
back home
back home
I hope you don't mind but I thought I'd come home
thought I'd come back to where I belong
back home
back home
