Don't blame it on my youth
Would have done anything for you
You said I was too young, well I'm 23 now
And I feel exactly the same as I did back then when I was 18, only 18

I'd walk to the other end of the earth for you
I'd cry an ocean just for you
I'd try until I had no strength
I'd do anything just for you
If only you loved me the way I loved you
If you wanted me the way I wanted you
Yeah I wanted you, really wanted you, and you alone

You said I'd have to stray
It was you though, not me
You said I'd have to play I was only 18
But now you see it wasn't me cos I loved you
Why couldn't you love me too?
Yeah I wanted, why couldn't you want me too?

I'd walk to the other end of the earth for you
I'd cry an ocean just for you
I'd try until I had no strength
I'd do anything just for you

I'd walk to the other end of the earth for you
I'd cry an ocean just for you
I'd try until I had no strength
I'd do anything just for you
