Here I stand I've come full circle back to you I tried to fight what I felt I told myself it weren't no good
I had to fight this love, I had to fight this love
Here I stand, oh now that I'm confessing my love Do you hear me when I say that I'm confessing my love?
Do you hear me when I stand face to face and say it's you I want?
Yeah it's you I want

Years fly by but they do not change my desires they're the same as they've always been Yeah I've aged but my heart is still just missing Oh my love I'm confessing to you Do you hear me when I say that I'm confessing my love?
Do you hear me when I stand face to face and say it's
you I want?
Yeah it's you I want

Oh don't you leave me all alone, I'm saying oh no don't you leave me wondering how you're doing Baby I miss you every single day Yeah I miss you every single day

Now that I'm confessing my love
Do you hear me when I say that I'm confessing my love?
Do you hear when I stand face to face and say it's you that I want?
Yeah it's you I want
Do you hear me when I'm confessing my love?
Do you hear me when I say that I'm confessing my
love?
Do you hear when I stand face to face and say it's you I want?
