The first time I heard you, you could barely pick a string Now look at you, you're in a league of your own you've overtaken me you're a guitar playing gangster queen you are all I'd ever need but you are hell bent on destroying me

You once said you weren't the enemy but now look at you crucifying me if you wanted me dead I'd be dead years ago you didn't stab me in the back because you wanted to look me in eyes as I bleed

Play that guitar the way you played me
Play that guitar the way you played me
You play that guitar the way you played my heart
Play that guitar the way you played me

goodness gracious me is that a bomb I hear?
tick tocking tick tick tick tick tocking false alarm it was my heart blowing up I give up I hold my hands up I surrender please don't shoot Have mercy if you can, I'd never pull the trigger on you I really love, I really love you, yeah I love you Have mercy if you can I'd never pull the trigger on you the way you do to me

Play my heart the way you play that guitar
You play guitar the way you play my heart
You play guitar the way you played my heart
You play guitar the way you played my heart
You play guitar the way you played me
You play guitar the way you played my heart
