I talk a good fight but I'm not a fighter
I talk a good fight it's all bravado
I talk a good fight I talk like I would hurt you
I talk a good fight but I am gentle talk a good fight I talk like I am cruel
I talk a good fight but I just love you

Miss you already yeah I do
I miss you already yeah I do (every inch of you)
I miss you already yeah I do (every inch of you)

Good luck, good luck, good luck pretending you're happy when you're not
I said good luck cos you will need it
I said goodbye but I've said goodbye before
Look at it now
Could we repair this?
Now it's come so undone
And so I say it was nice knowing you at times
At times it's been a real shame (you've been so cruel)

I miss you already yeah I do (every inch of you)
I miss you already yeah I do (every inch of you)
I miss you already yeah I do (every inch of you)

I'll miss your smile the most
I'll miss your eyes that glimmer oh
I'll miss your smile the most
And when it's time I guess I'll let go
And maybe oneday you'll regret all that you've done

I miss you already yeah I do (every inch of you)
I miss you already yeah I do (every inch of you)
I miss you already yeah I do (every inch of you)
