Who do you want to blame?
You walk away and just pretend well everyday is the same we all know that ourselves Oh you keep on saying I could save you but it's long wait for me

If I could
Save you for just one night
How could explain? that I'm forever trying It don't make sense
If I could save your life for what it means
If I could

We all had to fade it's part of life just a game we play Nobody else knows why if I could save you for just one night
if I could save you tonight

if I could save you I would I'd save you tonight
If I could yeah I would I'd save you tonight
