You came looking for me
You looked like someone had walked all over you
That you needed me
I heard your cry I went running to you
But when I arrived you didn't want me
Oh I felt your pain, I just walked on

Now it's me that feel like someone just walked all over
me
Now it's me that feel like someone just walked all over
me

Did you come to leave your mark on me?
Did you come to just to walk all over me
Did you just come to leave your footprint here?
Did you just come to leave your mark on me?
Oh just leaving your footprint here
Just leaving your footprint here leaving your footprint here
leaving your footprint here
leaving your footprint here
You're just leaving your footprint here
Oh Just leaving your footprint here
Just leaving your footprint here
Oh oh oh

I never stopped loving you
I just thought it's what you wanted
I can see that you don't know what you want anymore
Well you need to find that out

Did you just come round to walk right over my heart?
Did you just come round to walk right over my heart?
Did you come to leave your footprint here?
Did you come to walk all over me?
Did you come to leave your mark?
Did you come to walk all over me?

To leave your footprint here
To leave your footprint here
To leave your footprint here

To leave your footprint here
Did you just come to leave your footprint?
Did you just come to leave your footprint?
Did you just come to leave your footprint?
Did you just come to leave your footprint on my heart?
